2020 Rural Palliative Care Education Series
Sponsored by the Washington Rural Palliative Care Initiative and open to all rural communities in Washington

Advance Care Planning Tools for People with Serious Illness

Please register in advance:
https://nwth.zoom.us/meeting/register/28c7a316d8f38f0034538d7d7d4481ef37

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Tuesday, February 25 12:00 to 1:00 pm
Panelists will discuss the importance of conversations about care for serious illness, examine some of the available tools and help outline how POLST fits into the picture.

Moderated by Pat Justis  Executive Director, Rural Health
Washington State Department of Health

Panelists

SHARMON FIGENSHAW (RN, MN, ARNP, ACHPN-BC) is the Program Manager for the POLST/Serious Illness project for Honoring Choices PNW. As a palliative care nurse practitioner, she has worked with families facing end-of-life for over 30 years. She serves on both statewide and national teams to improve the care of seriously ill people across systems.

MARY CATLIN is the Senior Director of Honoring Choices Pacific Northwest, a joint initiative between WSHA and the Washington State Medical Association. Honoring Choices PNW aims to ensure that everyone receives care that honors personal values and goals at the end of life. Mary holds a Masters of Science in Business Administration and a Masters of Science in Human Development.

To learn more about the Washington Rural Palliative Care Initiative and palliative care for rural communities please visit:
https://waportal.org/partners/home/washington-rural-palliative-care-initiative

artwork by Paola, age 6, Peshastin